MARCH FOR LIFE

SATURDAY, JANUARY 18, 2003

In Concord, NH for March and the life drama:

THE DANGER ZONE

A play by Sam & Shelly Crystal. Performed by the David & Kimberly Bissell family. Each of us deals with decision making every day. Sometimes, however, we are faced with situations that are true dilemmas, and decision making during these times is difficult. There isn't always an easy way out. How reassuring it is to know that in those times, God's love and grace can reach out to us and pull us through— especially when we are willing to allow Him to touch us. Caprice is about to discover this truth as she explores the Danger Zone. As the secrets of her past and the mysteries of her future unfold, this gripping and heart-wrenching drama moves each audience member in a unique way as the plot progresses and the story reveals a dynamic twist, confronting Caprice with a new way of seeing the sanctity of life. Please join the NH pro-life community in our witness seeking to restore legal protection for all innocent human life.
